

Helmut Lang

Please draw what you look like.

What did you want to be when you grew up?
Tall.

What scares you?
Being photographed.

What did you eat for breakfast today?
Two eggs.

If you could change one thing about yourself,
what would it be?
Everything and nothing.

What do you see yourself doing as an old man?
Being nosy.

What makes you smile?
Guess.

What's your main source of exercise?
Walking.

What do you fantasize about?

The artist and groundbreaking former fashion designer, who will mount three exhibitions of his sculptures next year, sketched his answers at his Long Island studio with a charcoal stick.